

2 Day National Conference on Innovative Ideas in Engineering & Management

Department of Engineering & Department of Management have organized a 2 days National Conference on Innovative Ideas in Engineering & Management in the University campus. University has received more than 70 Research Papers from all over the India which are divided into four technical sessions. The motive of the conference was to highlight the new inventions in the field of Engineering & Management.

